SBHCs Make Quality Care Accessible!

Madison Parish SBHC staff focuses on health, yes, but also on engaging the minds of their students and teaching them to choose healthy lifestyles and activities. Strong community involvement with faith based agencies, the local funeral home, retired citizens, Extension Office and volunteers from all segments of the parish provide Tallulah's students with fun filled, learning activities such as horse-back riding lessons, swimming classes, sewing and cooking classes, ATV lessons, walking regiments, dancing hours, and bicycling. Students can access services 'before' regular office hours and that go 'beyond' medical and mental health treatment to reach their hearts. Hazel Suluki, Madison's SBHC Director says, "...in Madison Parish our health is our greatest wealth."

SBHCs Make Quality Care Accessible!

Gerald (not his real name) was set to play a major role in the school's Black History program when he was hit by ear pain and went to the SBHC for treatment. Later as the nurse practitioner congratulated him on a successful performance, he credited his visit to the SBHC with making him feel better and enabling him to perform.
